On this January 3rd 2018, was held the first Russian Ball in the Philippines. The event was organized by Natalya Bronzova, who constantly promotes Russian culture and art here.

The Ball, coinciding with Natalya's Birthday, was held at the One Shangrila Place Ballroom. It was attended by outstanding people of the Philippines and no less then the Ambassador of Russian Federation, Igor Khovaev! The Ambassador handed out an award, the "Bronze Butterfly" to outstanding Filipinos, who helped promote Russian Culture in the Philippines. The awardees are: the Deputy Speaker of the House of Representatives Hon. Cong. Linabelle Ruth R. Villarica, USEC of Turism and Executive Director of NPF, Maria Fema Duterte, President of the CCP Nick Lizaso and Dr. Billy Chan, Founder of the Post Peace. The event was also attended by many celebrities such as: Cory Quirino, Nonnie and Bert Basilio, Tam and Divine Austria, Eimee Cragun, Lolita E. Mirpuri, Atty Arlene Reazon, BDO VP Maurice Lim, Ditas Posadas, Agile Zamora, Myrna Yao, Serla Russel, UN Rep. Gion Gounet, Mache Torres and David Ackerman

The "Bronze Butterfly" was created as a symbol of the Russian Ball, by artist Natalya Bronzova, and cast in bronze. The unique bronze sculpture represents snow flakes at the base and a butterfly at the top, with the initials of Russian Ball in between. This award is the symbol of the event. Snowflakes represent Russia and the butterfly, the eternal summer of the Philippines, both never meeting in reality. But Natalya joined them beautifully together as a miracle, which should always have a place in our lives!
